NOVEMBER BUSINESS SPOTLIGHT

Franklin J. Eubank, Jr., Attorney at Law

When was the your business Established?
1994

What are your goals?

To assist people who need legal advice and representation, especially in the areas of real estate transactions, estate planning, business incorporation, and probate matters. Also, to insure that my clients or prospective clients have a good understanding of the laws as they relate to their specific transactions or cases and that they have a trusted advisor every step of the way.

What are your recent accomplishments or community involvements?

In addition to running my law practice and being a Section Member of the Illinois State Bar Association Real Estate and Trust and Estates Committees, I have been the President of the Village of Winnebago for over 14 years. As a result of being the Village President, I am currently serving on the NorthCOG board with mayors and village presidents from Winnebago County and Boone County, as well as the current Vice-Chairman of the Winnebago County PSAP (Public Safety Answering Point) - 911 Board.

Are there any events, promotions or information you'd like us to share with the community?

I have been an attorney since 1992 and will be celebrating my 30th year in 2024 as the owner of my law firm.
